Guidelines

1. Proposal Preparation Instructions for “International Project Funds”

Please limit the length of your proposal to FIVE pages or less. Feel free to contact the Office of Global Engagement at any stage during the application process if there are any questions. Proposals should include the following:

- Project Description:

Provide a description of the project which outlines the overall scope and timeline of activities, the projected outcomes, and how those outcomes will contribute to greater international engagement in IANR; i.e. how will the project help develop new international research, education and/or extension opportunities? Within this section, also include the following:

- Names and departmental affiliations of all faculty and staff funds will support.
- Partner country or countries.
- Names, affiliated institutions, and locations of international collaborators involved in the project.
- Summary of previous or on-going activities with the partner (including communications and planning) completed to date. If none please indicate this.

- Budget Request and Justification:

Specify amounts for travel, accommodation, supplies, and other expenses if applicable. Also indicate the level and source of cost-sharing. Funds may not be used for faculty salaries but may be used to support graduate students when appropriate (graduate student work related to the project).

- Implementation Timetable:

Provide approximate dates for the project as well as a proposed travel itinerary.

2. Proposal for “Travel and Hosting funds” and “Graduate Student Research funds”

Contact the Office of Global Engagement for the application forms. Please limit the length of your proposal to THREE pages or less, if not using the application form.

Indication of Support: required for all proposals

An email from a relevant department head or administrator is required for all applications. If applying for Graduate Research funds, a letter of support from program advisor is required. Funds will be transferred to a university account.

Project Report

The Principal Investigator is responsible for submitting a final report within 30 days of the award completion date.

Please email questions and proposal to Liana Calegare at LCalegare2@unl.edu. A meeting may be requested if further clarification is needed.
